

LEAVING NO ONE BEHIND: ENSURING A FAIR TRANSITION FOR WORKERS AND COMMUNITIES

Wednesday, February 5th, 2020 7:00–9:00 PM
Room 202, Charleston Coliseum & Convention Center
200 Civic Center Drive, Charleston, WV 25301

West Virginia is experiencing a wrenching economic and social transition as the climate crisis drives the world toward new energy sources and technologies. What funding mechanisms and what expenditures can help create a fair transition?

In this program, a panel of experts will examine historical, ongoing, and future programs to help workers, families, businesses and communities deal with this transition and build a sustainable future. There is no charge for admission, but to assure a seat please RSVP at <https://wvclimate.org>.

Panelists:

Adele Morris, Ph.D., Princeton University, Senior Fellow and Policy Director for Climate and Energy Economics, Brookings Institution

Ann M. Eisenberg, J.D., Cornell University, Assistant Professor of Law, University of South Carolina

Evan Hansen, M.S., Massachusetts Institute of Technology, Principal, Downstream Strategies, Delegate, West Virginia House of Delegates

Ted Boettner, M.A., Political Science, University of New Hampshire, Co-founder and Executive Director, WV Center on Budget and Policy.

This event is co-sponsored by the West Virginia Center on Climate Change ("WV3C"), the WVU College of Law Center for Energy and Sustainable Development, and the West Virginia Center on Budget and Policy. For more information and to RSVP visit <https://wvclimate.org> or contact WV3C Director Logan Thorne at logan.thorne.LT@gmail.com or (304) 657-5455.